Module 2 in our Series....

- * Staff training and Development– How to train staff to be what you need them to be.

In this meeting we will discuss everything from onboarding to developing the staff we need to provide the highest quality childcare to our families.

We will also discuss how to build a program culture that speaks to who you are and how to grow people to be a good fit in that culture.

Please come prepared to discuss current practices and current struggles within this area.
